

Fiddle and Guitar Workshops

GLEN DOUGLAS HALL, Near JEDBURGH

Sat 29th March, Workshops 1-4pm, Concert 5:30pm

Tickets £20 (workshop and concert), £5 (concert only)

A day of music workshops by Fiddle virtuoso Stewart Hardy (ex John Wright Band) and top guitarist/piper Frank McLaughlin, followed by a concert by this fantastic duo.

Guitar Workshop for intermediate players covering a range of techniques used in accompanying traditional music and song including:- : guitar accompaniment for song, finger picking, chord voicing, and progressions, alternative tunings, flat picking, improve your rhythm playing.

Fiddle Workshop Explore the repertoire of the North East of England from 17th century to present day with a special focus on James Hill. The workshop will look at bowing styles and ornamentation with a view to their wider application, and also at general considerations such as tone production and improvising around a tune.

Stewart Hardy: Folkworks' Artist in residence for the national Year of the Artist millennium project. He currently works as a core tutor on Newcastle University's Folk degree course. Stewart spent six years as an influential member of the very popular John Wright Band, performing throughout Europe. Stewart is now based in the North East and is much in demand as a session player and fiddle tutor, teaching regularly at folkworks and other projects throughout the country. Frank McLaughlin is a first class guitarist regularly in demand as a session player and teacher and has worked on many recording projects including The complete songs of Robert Burns (Linn Records), and most recently The Complete Songs of Robert Tanahill. He also performs with the celebrated Mick West Band.

Email : info@claytararecords.com

www.bordersfiddlegroup.org.uk

Fiddle and Guitar Workshops

GLEN DOUGLAS HALL, Near JEDBURGH

Sat 29th March, Workshops 1-4pm, Concert 5:30pm

Tickets £20 (workshop and concert), £5 (concert only)

A day of music workshops by Fiddle virtuoso Stewart Hardy (ex John Wright Band) and top guitarist/piper Frank McLaughlin, followed by a concert by this fantastic duo.

Guitar Workshop for intermediate players covering a range of techniques used in accompanying traditional music and song including:- : guitar accompaniment for song, finger picking, chord voicing, and progressions, alternative tunings, flat picking, improve your rhythm playing.

Fiddle Workshop Explore the repertoire of the North East of England from 17th century to present day with a special focus on James Hill. The workshop will look at bowing styles and ornamentation with a view to their wider application, and also at general considerations such as tone production and improvising around a tune.

Stewart Hardy: Folkworks' Artist in residence for the national Year of the Artist millennium project. He currently works as a core tutor on Newcastle University's Folk degree course. Stewart spent six years as an influential member of the very popular John Wright Band, performing throughout Europe. Stewart is now based in the North East and is much in demand as a session player and fiddle tutor, teaching regularly at folkworks and other projects throughout the country. Frank McLaughlin is a first class guitarist regularly in demand as a session player and teacher and has worked on many recording projects including The complete songs of Robert Burns (Linn Records), and most recently The Complete Songs of Robert Tanahill. He also performs with the celebrated Mick West Band.

Email : info@claytararecords.com

www.bordersfiddlegroup.org.uk